

Reading Strategy Cards

Questioning:

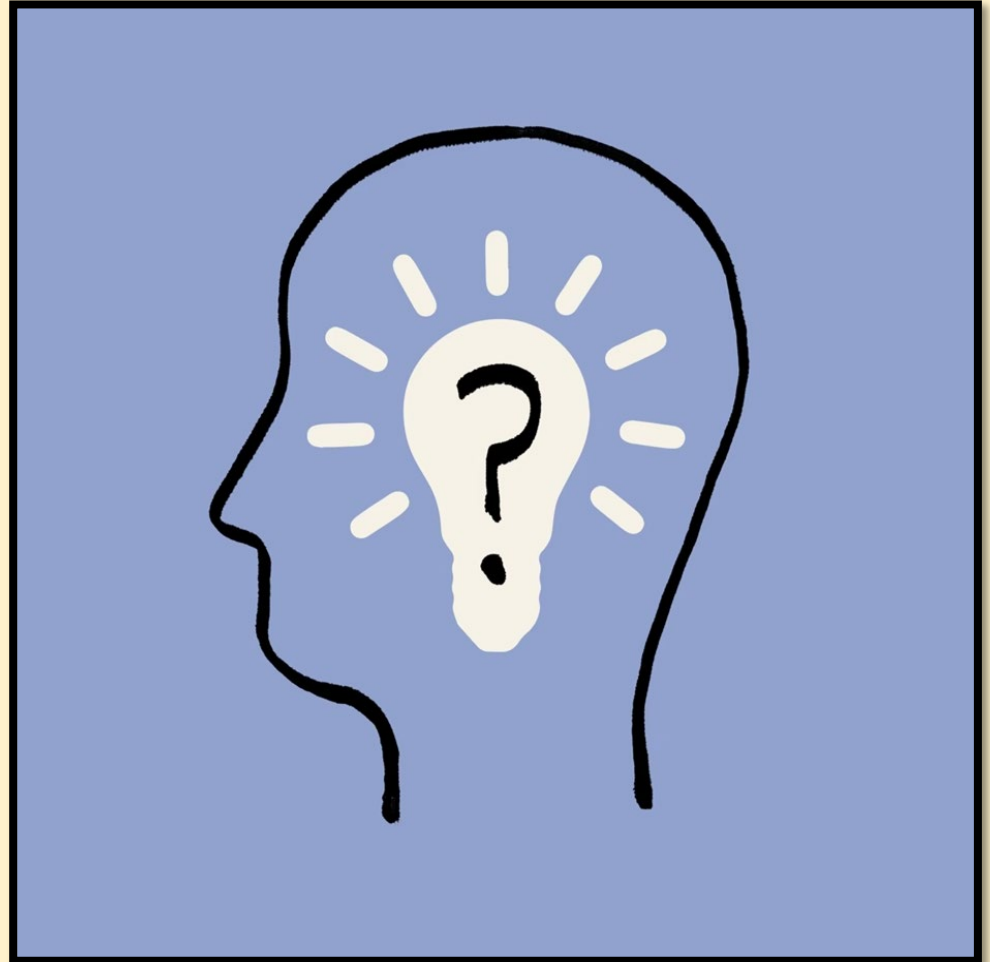

What has just happened?

What have I just learnt?

What don't I understand?

What will happen next?

How does this link to earlier chapters?

Predicting:

Did I expect this would happen?

How will this scene affect the story?

Does the writer tell us everything here?

What do you think will happen next?

How does this link to earlier chapters?

Clarifying:

When the character says this, what does this mean?

What does this word mean?

What does this scene teach us?

Is this an important moment? Why?

What is the author telling us here?

Summarising:

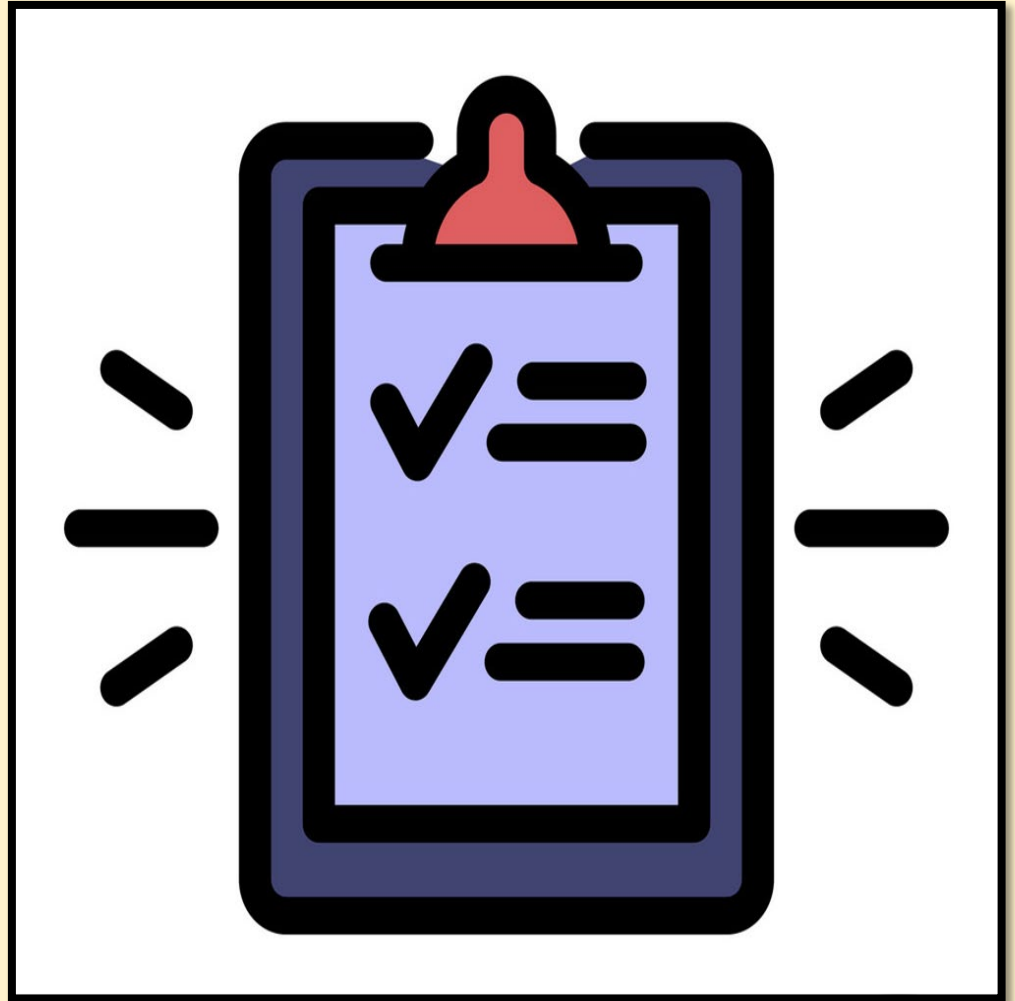

What happened in this scene?

What happened in this chapter?

What the three most important things that have happened?

What is the character feeling, and why?

What is the author telling us here?

Inferring:

I think this could mean...

Perhaps the character feels...

Because of this event, the novel is now...

Because of this word, the character is now...

What is the author hinting here?

Connecting:

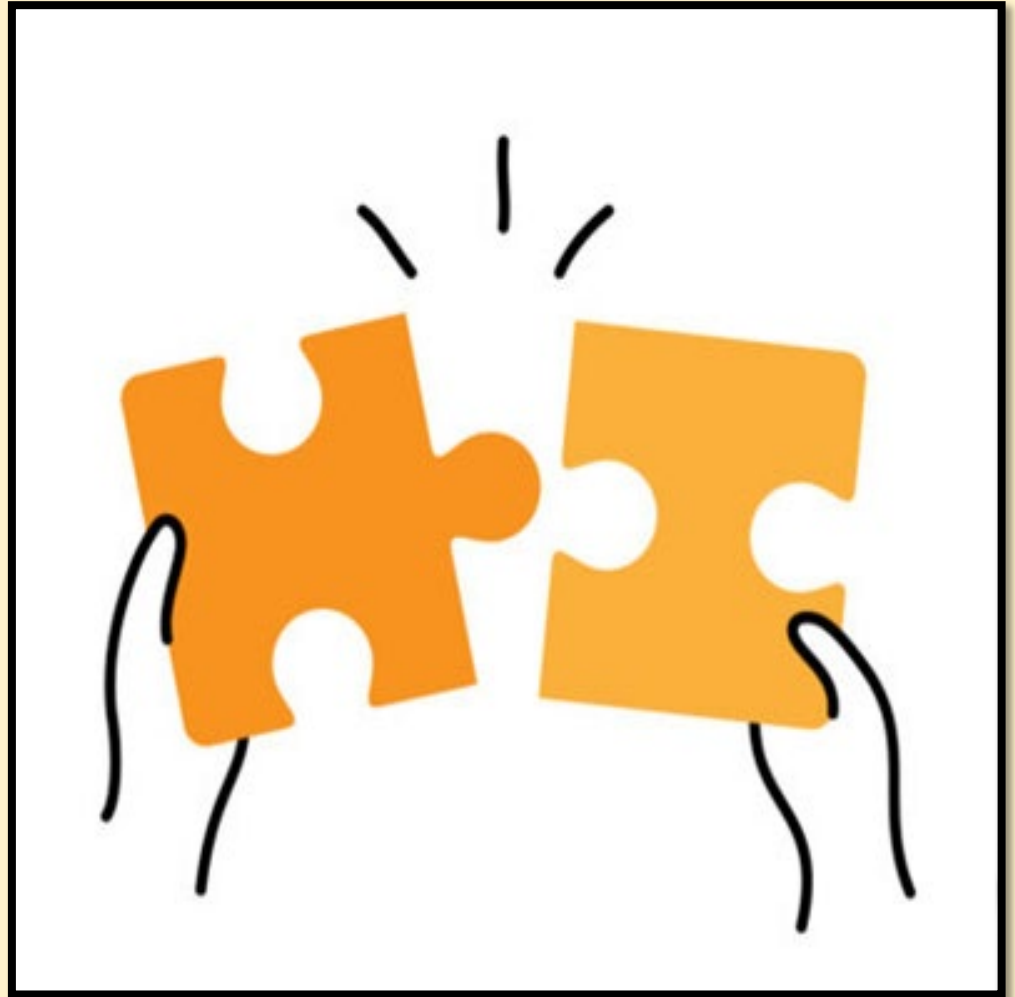

How does this scene link to chapter 1?

How does this moment change the novel?

How has the character changed?

How does this book relate to society today?

How does this book link to others I've read?

Monitoring:

- Do I understand what I just read?
- What words are important here?
- What does this word mean?
Do I need to know?
- Which part should I re-read?
- I wonder if this could link to...

Discussing:

- What do you think about this scene?
- Do you agree that this moment is important? Why or why not?
- What do you think the writer is trying to teach us here?
- What do you think will happen next?
- What do you like/dislike about this character?

