Sussex Digital Humanities Lab (SHL Digital) 2024-2025 call for proposals (seed funding) Terms and Conditions of award
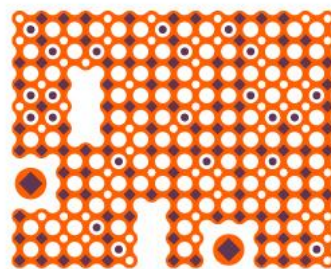

Congratulations on securing funding for your research and scholarly activities. We look forward to supporting and promoting your work.

This document sets out the general expectations from all SHL Digital's award holders. Use and management of any funds granted should follow the University Financial regulations and policies .

Specific conditions and timings of deliverables for grantees of call for proposals 2024/25:

1- Present your funded project during SHL week 2025 (June – date TBC)
2- Submit a short report of how the funds have been spent, demonstrating / illustrating how it has helped further the work towards a proposal for external funding (by 31 July 2025)
3- A post for the SHL Digital research blog to be submitted to shl@sussex.ac.uk (by 31 July 2025)
4- Bids submitted for external funding arising from this grant should be flagged as SHL Digital bids.

Contribution to SHL's future sustainability:

- You will be expected to organise a meeting with Elena Dennison (Programme Manager) to follow up on future bid plans.
- Please flag any arising bid for external funding as SHL in Worktribe (ask your RDM if unsure on how to do this)
- Inform us of any success, or impacts, publication, or further activities arising from this funding.

Advocacy expectations:

- Acknowledge the support received in any form of communication about the project, conferences and any activities related to or resulting from this award.
- Please credit outputs with the words 'Supported by Sussex Digital Humanities Lab".
- Tag SHL Digital in social media (LinkedIn, Bluesky, Mastodon, IG)